

INTERPRETER SERVICES

Interpreters of all languages are provided at no cost to Traffic and Criminal defendants and witnesses, in Juvenile and Mental Health cases and certain Family Law matters. You or your attorney need only to request this service at your first appearance in the court. Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Court will also provide American Sign Language (ASL) interpreters for any type of court hearing. You will have to provide your own interpreter in languages other than ASL if you have a Civil, Small Claims, Guardianship, Conservatorship, Adoption, or Probate matter. You can find a list of State certified and registered interpreters at www.courtinfo.ca.gov/programs/courtinterpreters/master.htm
